terrorism in India, Pakistan has been providing safe haven to several fugitives from Indian law, wanted in India in connection with heinous crimes such as the Mumbai bomb blasts of 1993, the hijacking of IC 814 to Kandahar and the December 13 attack on India's Parliament. There have also been reports of Pakistani passports having been issued to Dawood Ibrahim.

Government have been appropriately and effectively bringing to the attention of the international community facts pertaining to Pakistan's continued sponsorship of cross border terrorism in India, and the sponsorship and support provided by it to terrorists and fugitives from law.

Despite the public commitment by the President of Pakistan not to allow the use of Pakistan territories for terrorism anywhere in the world, Pakistan's sponsorship of cross border terrorism and support to individuals involved in terrorist and criminal activities in India has continued unabated. Pakistan has also, contrary to facts, not acknowledged the presence of Dawood Ibrahim in that country, or the support that is being provided to him.
